

Partner Consultants

Senza Fili Consulting provides advisory support on wireless data technologies and services. Its expertise extends to cellular communications, Wi-Fi, WiMAX, other fixed and mobile broadband wireless access (BWA) technologies, wired broadband access technologies, and mobile and fixed VoIP. Senza Fili has in-depth expertise in financial modeling, market forecasts and research, white paper preparation, business plan support, due diligence, training, and evaluation of end-user requirements. The BTP Group, LLC is a supplier of high-quality affordable market research and mapping. The firm also specializes in turnkey wireless systems and integration. Wireless INFONET is a pioneer in the broadband wireless industry - providing vendor-neutral consulting, design, installation, support, training workshops, and technical writing services since 1993. Their new book "Deploying License-Free Wireless WANs" by Wireless InfoNet President, Jack Unger, will be published by Cisco Press in February of 2003. Xteleos is an independent consulting firm with offices in Colorado. They provide expertise in network architecture, storage solutions, fault-tolerant server architectures, process/office automation, data center deployment/management. For more information, visit www.xteleos.com. ISP-Market LLC, is a marketing consulting firm focused exclusively on helping technology companies understand, communicate with, and sell to the Internet Service Provider and Enterprise IT Communities. www.isp-market.com